

'To celebrate the Philip Larkin Centenary'

~ THE BETJEMAN & PHILIP LARKIN SOCIETIES jointly present ~

'A COMING TOGETHER OF SORTS'

The collaborative Adventures of John Betjeman & Philip Larkin

(Hosted by The Shires Branch of The Betjeman Society)

Saturday September 24th 2022 10.30am – 4.30pm

The Morley Suite, Devonshire Place, 78 London Road, Leicester LE2 0RA

(A short walk up from London Road Station. On-site Parking available
- Access Car Park from Prebend Street, turn left just before venue)

TICKET PRICE: £25pp

Morning Presentations:

'The quickest way to start a punch-up' by Dr John Florance,
BBC Broadcaster & President of the Shires Branch of The Betjeman Society.
Showing of the BBC Monitor Programme Larkin & Betjeman 'Down Cemetery Road'

Refreshments:

Hot buffet lunch Complimentary Morning Coffee/Afternoon Tea inc in Ticket Price
Licensed Bar (Drinks at own cost).

Afternoon Presentations:

'A coming together of sorts' by Dr Philip Pullen,
Writer & Researcher, Trustee of The Philip Larkin Society/Chair of [Larkin100]
'Larkin's suppressed Betjeman period' about Betjeman's influence on Larkin's formative years by Dr Tim Hancock FHEA, Lecturer in English, University of Ulster.

TO BOOK AND PAY FOR YOUR PLACE (Max 100)
Visit www.betjemansociety.com/eventsalendar for details

- Andrew McCallum, Vice Chairman, The Betjeman Society

CLOSING DATE FOR BOOKINGS SEPTEMBER 10th 2022
(Please state any dietary requirements when booking)